VICTOR GAMERO CABO

PROFILE

VÍCTOR GAMERO CABO is Attorney at Law (Spain), LL.M., specializes in commercial law and arbitration. He has extensive experience in the practice of law of Spain and the United States. Victor focuses his professional practice on advising companies in the Engineering & Infrastructure, Foreign Trade & Transport and Real Estate & Hotel sectors.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Victor is a partner at GAMERO & BRAVO ABOGADOS. Victor's main areas of expertise include commercial law and international arbitration. He has developed his career in the US and in Spain, having been part of Moscardó & Asociados (Madrid) and the Law offices of F. Barba (San Jose, California). Similarly, he is currently also Deputy Director of the International Relations Department of the Madrid Bar Association.

His professional activity has focused on advising national and international companies, international commercial arbitration and US immigration law. It highlights his participation in complex international arbitration cases, relating to EPC contracts in the engineering and construction sectors administered by the International Court of Arbitration of the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC), the Madrid Court of Arbitration of the Official Chamber of Commerce, Industry and Services of Madrid, the Spanish Arbitration Court and the Cour d'Arbitrage Hispano-Marocaine.

ACADEMIC BACKGROUND

Law degree from the University of Malaga.

LL.M. in Transnational Business Practice taught by the University of the Pacific: McGeorge School of Law (Sacramento, California).

Master in International Business Law, Contracting and International Relations from the Instituto Superior de Derecho y Economia (ranked #2 of his class).

During his academic studies at the University of Malaga, Victor also attended the Expert Program of International Operational Management (CECO-ICEX) and the English Law Studies directed by the prestigious professor J. Brebner.

INSTITUTIONAL ACTIVITY

Since 2019, he is Deputy Director of the Department of International Relations of the Madrid Bar Association (ICAM), where he coordinates and manages the relations/activities between ICAM and international institutions, organizations of lawyers, arbitration courts, mediation centers, as well as other legal activities.

In its institutional activity, his role consists in developing the internationalization of the ICAM members –e.g., offering opportunities for academic or work stays in other countries–, promoting the Madrid legal profession, reinforcing ICAM's presence and relations with international legal organizations, as well as strengthening networking between lawyers from different countries.

BUSINESS ACTIVITY

Since the outset of his career, Victor has closely been linked to the national and international business arena, especially in the sectors of foreign trade, transport and tourism.

He has carried out intermediation functions in operations of sales of goods, foreign currency, commodities and infrastructure projects for 8 years. Moreover, Victor has actively participated in the creation of an international import/export network extended to countries such as Saudi Arabia, Uruguay, Canada, Peru, Mexico, USA, Qatar, Australia, Paraguay and China.

In addition, Victor acts as a consultant for the Australian company Standard and Partners Ltd (SPL), where he carries out functions of representation, implementation and development of the company in Spain, managing its imports/exports and providing legal advice. Likewise, he is responsible for facilitating business-customer relations, the supply of distributors, wholesalers and importers of brand products.

MEDIA ACTIVITY

During his stay in the US, within the framework of his work at Francisco J. Barba Law Offices and at the Victims of Crime Resource Center, Victor actively collaborated with the media, participating in various radio channels and publishing legal articles in magazines of the state of California related to US immigration law and the protection of crime victims.
